

SEVEN LAKES TENNIS

2002 2006 2006 2007 2009 2016 2016 2017 2018

Home of nine division championship teams

Tennis is our middle name at Seven Lakes Golf and Tennis Community, and there's no better place to enjoy the game. Whether you are looking to play with your friends, compete in a league, or just learn how to play, you can do it here!

Our Facilities

Seven Lakes has 6 Har-Tru clay tennis courts that are easy on your knees and back, and groomed to perfection by our staff. There is a ball machine, backboard, and ample supply of practice balls and loaner rackets. All this is available for unlimited use, free of charge.

Courts can be booked online, by phone, or in person at the Tennis Office, where you can also get information about our many tennis programs.

Our Tennis Pro

USPTA Tennis Pro Stephen Kangwa offers residents private, semi-private and group lessons, and is very popular with both new players and veterans of the sport at Seven Lakes.

(over)

Our Programs

From open play to leagues, lessons and mixers, there are lots of ways to play tennis at Seven Lakes. In the mornings, players can participate in Round Robin doubles tennis with players of all levels by just showing up with their rackets ready. For more competitive play, intramural tennis is organized for both men and women of all levels.

Seven Lakes has nine men's and women's competitive Lee County tennis teams. Cheering on our teams is a favorite Seven Lakes activity, and we're proud of our 9 division championships.

Our Tennis Club

At the hub of tennis activity is Seven Lakes Tennis Club, supporting the tennis community with organized events, social activities, communication and camaraderie. During the regular season the group organizes parties and tennis mixers, sometimes with post-tennis BBQs under the Tiki Hut.

Stephen Kangwa, USPTA Pro

Stephen was on the national junior tennis team in Zambia and had a full tennis scholarship to Concordia College in Bronxville, New York. He competed in professional tournaments and was captain of Zambia's Davis Cup Team. Now a USPTA professional, Stephen teaches tennis at all levels. He was Tennis Director and Head Pro at clubs in Westchester County, NY, and worked at The Forest Country Club in Fort Myers.

Players in Seven Lakes rave about Stephen's ability to work with everyone at their own level. "He breaks it down for us," said a player from the top women's team. "There's so much he's teaching us that we didn't know before." "Even the best players can get better," agreed a member of the men's top team. "He remembers everyone's strengths and weaknesses," said another player. Stephen says he likes how enthusiastic the players are at Seven Lakes. "Everybody is willing to work with their teams so they are all on the same page. That makes my job easy."